A Serious Event Space

Nestled in the heart of London's West End, the iconic Comedy Store is a space like no other. From product launches, film screenings and presentations through to bespoke comedy shows, our world class facilities can meet a host of requirements.

A Trusted Brand

With over 3000 people passing through our doors each week, we have unrivalled experience in hosting public and private events with a dedicated team to guide clients through every part of the process.

The Comedy Store is the first choice location for leading brands including Microsoft, BBC, Comedy Central, IBM, 20th Century Fox, Matthew Clarke, Nivia, KPMG, Costa & Nimax Theatres to name but a few....

The Venue

Our auditorium has a tiered, amphitheater style layout with the capacity to seat 400. We have a fully licensed bar, a small, adaptable tabled area, a cloakroom and a Green Room for artistes and speakers.

Our onsite catering facilities can provide buffets, canapés, refreshments and more

First Class A.V

The Comedy Store is a market leader in audio visual. The venue is frequently used as a broadcast studio by major television producers and comes equipped with a concert-capable P.A system, a top-end projector with 2.5m screen and a highly flexible lighting rig.

Our experienced production team will ensure your event looks and sounds its absolute best. A full tech spec is available on request.

A comedian with dark curly hair is performing on stage, holding a microphone and wearing a black jacket with white patterns. In the background, a large, illuminated laughing face logo is visible. The scene is dimly lit, focusing on the performer and the logo.

We Know Comedy

As the premier name in live comedy, we have direct access to the finest comics on the UK and International circuit.

With a host of talent at our fingertips we can supply individual stand-ups, hosts for awards ceremonies, or entire Comedy Store shows to make your event truly distinctive.

Further Information

The venue is available for hire Mon-Sun between 9am and 5pm. We are also available for hire on selected Monday evenings.
